

DYR Exercise #6 Dying to Self (Galatians 2:20)

Paul J. Bucknell

"I have been crucified with Christ; and it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me, and delivered Himself up for me."

(Gal 2:20) NASB

Directions: Reflect on your devotional times, not what you wish but what is true.

- * How regularly do you meet the Lord?
- * Are they fruitful times?
- * What do you do when you feel dry and empty?

Study Questions (DYR #6)

1. What does “dying to self” mean in your daily life?
2. What Scriptures best illustrate this principle?
3. Why is self-denial so difficult in modern society?
4. What is the hardest area of your life to trust God with?
5. How can recognizing weakness lead to greater joy and dependence on God?